

I am writing in support of extra audio channels being made available to Public Radio Stations. Reading services for the Blind and Visually Impaired desperately need better audio channels to replace the SCA system. The technology of SCA is horribly outdated for this use. The Blind and Visually Impaired deserve better service.